Dreams and Visions

Chapter 520–1, Vision No. 1

(1) THE SIX CUPS OF
THE WRATH OF GOD
HAVE BEEN POURED OUT
UPON THE EARTH.
THE SEVENTH CUP IS PENDING.

VISION

(2) In a vision, my messenger said to me, “Come, follow me. I am taking you to heaven upon JESUS’ request.”

(3) I lost sight of everything here upon this earth. When I arrived in heaven, I found myself in the company of the angels.

(4) My messenger said to me, “An important event is being prepared here.”

(5) I was with the angels of heaven. I was well received: — “You are Jeanine; welcome among us!”

(6) In the vision, I saw an event being prepared. Thrones were set up; and elderly men took their seat upon these thrones.

(7) I saw a tall, impressive angel. He was the angel in service. He was standing very close to the elderly men.

(8) I also saw the four (4) living beings. Then, after everything was ready, I saw the assembly of angels, the thrones.

(9) After everything was ready for this event, I heard the noise of great waters, and thunders resounding.

(10) I was in the assembly of the angels when suddenly there was a powerful thunder. The angels rose and said:

“Alleluia! Lord God, you are righteous in your judgments.”

(11) The ceremony could start.

(12) I was trembling in the assembly of the angels.

(13) After this powerful thunder, my messenger said to me, “There are yet five thunders after this one.” — I was trembling, for I had already heard the power of the first thunder.

(14) A silence of meditation reigned in heaven. A voice was raised for me,

“My grace is sufficient for thee.”

VISION

(15) After these six thunders, I saw in vision the seven (7) angels, each one equipped with a golden trumpet, and was sounding it.

(16) I saw that there were in the beginning six (6) who had sounded the trumpet. The seventh (7th) angel with the seventh (7th) trumpet was at rest, and waiting.

Dreams and Visions

Chapter 520–1, Vision No. 2

(1) I came back into vision with the twenty-four (24) elderly men and the assembly of angels.

(2) Very close to the twenty-four (24) elderly men, the angel in service was setting on the floor before them seven (7) golden cups.

(3) I had a closer look at the seven (7) cups. They

The six cups of the wrath of God

were empty. The sound of the harps was slow.

<sup>(4)</sup> A profound and solemn silence reigned in heaven, a silence of half an hour, then suddenly a voice rose and said this,

<sup>(5)</sup> “The judgment of the wrath of God is open in the sanctuary of our God and Lord. The beverages of the seven (7) cups are ready. They are going to be poured out upon the earth, the wrath of our God and Lord.”

<sup>(8)</sup> I saw one of the elderly men saying to the angel in service to go to the sanctuary to take the beverages that JESUS has prepared, and that they are ready. — This angel obeyed and departed.

<sup>(9)</sup> A silence reigned in heaven. It was important and solemn.

VISION

<sup>(10)</sup> After this time of silence, I saw this angel in service coming from the sanctuary; and he brought the beverage in a golden bucket, and poured it into the first golden cup.

<sup>(11)</sup> The 24 elderly men said,

“Thou art worthy, our God, our Lord, to exercise this judgment.”

<sup>(12)</sup> I saw this angel in service departing again to the sanctuary for the second beverage, prepared by JESUS, the son of God. I saw him arriving with the golden bucket, and he poured it into the second cup.

<sup>(13)</sup> Then he went and came back, and kept on doing this until the seven cups were full.

<sup>(14)</sup> This tall angel, with his wings folded upon his back, went to the sanctuary. Each time, he came back from the sanctuary with the beverage in a golden bucket and decanted it into the seven (7) golden cups, the seven (7) cups of the wrath of God. They were still on the ground before the thrones of the twenty-four (24) elderly men and of the four (4) living beings.

VISION

<sup>(15)</sup> Every time this angel poured this beverage, I trembled. I saw that when pouring the beverage into a cup, the effect of the beverage struck him down. He was thrown back upon the ground, for the content of the beverage was powerful, very powerful.

<sup>(16)</sup> While pouring the beverage into another cup, I saw coming out of this thick liquid, little flames of fire, gases, smoke; and from this same cup were rising flames of fire. I trembled.

<sup>(17)</sup> I saw, when this angel poured the beverage into one cup among the seven (7) cups, the angel in service withdrew to breathe. He was dispelling the gas around him, and shutting his nose. He went out for a moment, which was brief. He was disturbed by the powerful smell coming out of this cup. He looked distraught.

<sup>(18)</sup> I was inspired by the spirit of God, a terrible poison was put into the beverage to kill the bees living upon the earth. Many bees will be affected until their extinction.

<sup>(19)</sup> The twenty-four elderly men told him that the service was not over, that he must hold on up to the end; and they were encouraging him.

<sup>(20)</sup> Then they raised their voices together and said,

“Thou art worthy, Lord, to exercise this judgment. Lord, our God, thou art worthy.”

Dreams and Visions

Chapter 520–1, Vision No. 3

VISION

<sup>(1)</sup> After the seven (7) cups were filled with the wrath of God, I went into vision.

<sup>(2)</sup> My spirit came back to the earth. My messenger put me down in the fields. He was by my side.

<sup>(4)</sup> In vision, I saw in these hives that the bees were very much panicked; they were suffering, they were dying; hives were dying before my eyes.

<sup>(5)</sup> It was gas, poison, poured into one of the cups, which was killing the bees and the birds of the sky upon the earth. The birds and everything that is found upon the earth and in the sea were dying, and also the corals of the seas.

the bees will be the first to die. They will be the first to disappear from the earth, without the inhabitants of the earth perceiving it. Their honey is polluted and toxic. It is famine.

VISION

<sup>(7)</sup> I came back into vision accompanied by my messenger. He placed me before the unfolding of the ceremony of the seven (7) cups, of the seven (7) trumpets, and of the seven (7) thunders.

<sup>(8)</sup> I saw the seven (7) cups still on the floor. The twenty-four (24) elderly men gave this order to the angel in service, to sound the golden trumpet. This sound was strong and powerful.

VISION

<sup>(9)</sup> In this vision, I saw seven (7) men coming. I noticed that these seven (7) men were tall, clothed in white, and a golden belt was adorning their chest.

<sup>(10)</sup> They came and placed themselves before the thrones of the twenty-four (24) elderly men. And I saw this angel, who was in the service of the seven (7) cups, handing to each one of them a cup of the wrath of God, filled with beverages.

<sup>(11)</sup> The twenty-four (24) elderly men gave them this order, to go to the sanctuary with these cups of wrath, filled with these beverages, in order for JESUS to give them the itinerary of their presence upon the earth, and where they are to pour out the beverages.

<sup>(12)</sup> They came out from before the thrones of the elderly men and they went to the sanctuary.

Dreams and Visions

Chapter 520–1, Vision No. 4

<sup>(1)</sup> In this vision, I saw on the ground the seventh (7th) cup of the wrath of God, the only one that remained before the elderly men. I was in the glory of this moment. I saw a powerful glory reflecting upon the seventh (7th) cup so that I may see this golden cup on the ground.

<sup>(2)</sup> Suddenly, I saw this angel in service arriving. His face was grave and haggard. He had the golden bucket and poured the beverage in the seventh (7th) cup, and filled it.

<sup>(3)</sup> I saw him pouring the beverage, which had a brown color. While pouring it, I saw that the time taken to finish pouring this beverage was long. He did it three (3) times.

<sup>(4)</sup> My God, what a vision! A solemn vision. There was a silence of half an hour.

<sup>(5)</sup> When his mission was finished with the seven (7) cups of the wrath of God, this angel placed himself before the seventh (7th) cup on the ground, opened wide his wings in this glory of God and in the light of heaven.

<sup>(6)</sup> His wings wide open, he knelt down before the seventh (7th) cup filled with the wrath of God, bowed his head and closed his eyes, as in contemplation. He did it with much respect, and folded his great wings upon this cup without touching it. He remained a moment in this position. — I was trembling.

<sup>(7)</sup> A voice in my ears,

<sup>(8)</sup> A calm, a solemn silence reigned during the time that this angel was in contemplation over the seventh (7th) cup, a silence of half an hour.

<sup>(9)</sup> Then the silence was broken by the words of the twenty-four (24) elderly men,

“Thou art worthy, Lord, our God, to exercise this judgment. Thou art worthy, Lord, our God.”

<sup>(10)</sup> Then this impressive angel in service stood back up and took the seventh (7th) cup with delicacy and handed it to the seventh man, clothed with white garments, with a golden belt upon his chest.

<sup>(11)</sup> After receiving the seventh (7th) cup from the hand of this angel in service, the angel of the seventh (7th) trumpet sounded it. Then rang out the seventh (7th) thunder.

<sup>(12)</sup> I saw the twenty-four (24) elderly men giving this order to the man clothed in white and with the golden belt, to go to the sanctuary so that JESUS, the son of man, give him the itinerary, his route, to go and pour out the seventh (7th) cup upon the earth.

<sup>(13)</sup> I saw that the man departed as he was asked. I lost sight of this solemn instant.

<sup>(14)</sup> I had more visions about the seventh (7th) cup. The seven (7) cups had all received their beverage. I no longer saw these six (6) men with the six (6) cups of the wrath of God.

VISION

<sup>(15)</sup> My messenger said to me, “Come, follow me. We are going to the sanctuary. This man with the seventh (7th) cup is over there.”

<sup>(16)</sup> I lost sight of the elderly men, the four (4) living beings and the assembly of the angels. I was in the sanctuary with my messenger, before the open door.

<sup>(17)</sup> When I arrived there, I saw that the man clothed in white and with the golden belt was at the open door of the sanctuary. He did not enter and was waiting outside, holding the seventh (7th) cup.

<sup>(18)</sup> My messenger drew my attention upon the seventh (7th) cup: “Look, you see, he is holding it very firmly, very firmly. When this beverage is poured out, it is the end. JESUS comes to fetch his bride. He will come out of the most holy place. This is after the seventh (7th) cup is poured out upon the earth, JESUS comes out of the most holy place, he comes out of the sanctuary. The saints are to live without an intercessor.”

<sup>(19)</sup> Then he made me come into the sanctuary and left me in this place.

<sup>(20)</sup> Once I entered into the sanctuary, my messenger said to me, “I am leaving you here. JESUS, the son of God, will come to you. He knows that you are here. Be not afraid.” — I was trembling. I was alone. I was looking at him as he was departing.

Dreams and Visions

Chapter 520–1, Vision No. 5

(1) THE MEDIATION OF JESUS IS TERMINATED. THE DOOR OF GRACE IS CLOSED. IT IS LATE!

<sup>(2)</sup> I found myself in the heavenly sanctuary, in the holy place. I looked and saw a great curtain before me, and I was there beside a table.

<sup>(3)</sup> It was a little dark with the curtain drawn. But I saw a great, crimson red curtain. In the fabric, I saw figures of angels embroidered with gold thread.

<sup>(4)</sup> I waited for a moment, when I saw JESUS coming out on the other side of the curtain.

<sup>(5)</sup> He said to me, “Wait for me here. I am coming back.”

“My grace is sufficient for thee.”

<sup>(6)</sup> I saw JESUS going toward a man outside. The door of the sanctuary being open, I saw and heard their words.

<sup>(7)</sup> JESUS said to this man to go with the seventh (7th) cup toward the rising sun. He was giving him the itinerary to follow on the earth.

<sup>(8)</sup> I realized that the earth is wide. He had to follow the indications as on a map.

Dreams and Visions

Chapter 520–1, Vision No. 6

VISION

<sup>(1)</sup> After this talk with the man who had the seventh (7th) cup of the wrath of God, JESUS, tall and majestic, entered into the sanctuary, passed by me and said for me to wait.

<sup>(2)</sup> I looked at JESUS. His face appeared to me grave and solemn. I looked at him again. JESUS had wept. When he said to me to remain behind this curtain, he had a sob in his voice.

<sup>(3)</sup> I waited. I looked again at this large curtain behind which I was. I started to tremble when suddenly I was attracted by the sweet fragrant smoke which was coming out behind, from the other side of this large curtain. I saw the smoke; I trembled.

<sup>(4)</sup> I saw JESUS coming toward this large crimson red curtain, behind which I was. He was passing nearby. At first, I saw a shadow which was passing again, moving, and passing and passing again; then after a few minutes, I saw a tall man through the curtain, clothed with a red mantle, the color of blood, a fuming censer in his right hand.

<sup>(5)</sup> I was in the smoke which was coming out of his censer. I saw him swinging it to make smoke come out of it. I heard the sound of the little bells which were tinkling.

<sup>(6)</sup> What kept my attention, I saw that he was tall, very tall, and he was walking slowly, very slowly behind this very high curtain.

<sup>(7)</sup> I discovered, this personage made me tremble. I was weak when my attention was drawn to this man clothed with a red mantle, with little bells ringing around the bottom of his robe. They were bells of gold.

<sup>(8)</sup> I saw him from the back. He was very tall, with large built shoulders.

The six cups of the wrath of God

<sup>(9)</sup> I no longer heard the sound of the little bells. I was asking myself what was going on behind this curtain. There was a deep silence, no more smoke, no more sound.

<sup>(10)</sup> Oh, what a surprise it was, when I realized that this man was at the end of the curtain; and he had pulled it a bit so that I saw him on the other side. This man did not speak to me.

<sup>(11)</sup> I froze before his attire. He looked at me. I lowered my head. I lifted my head up again; I looked at him. He was still there.

<sup>(12)</sup> He looked at me. I lowered my head again. I looked at him again. I started to tremble.

<sup>(13)</sup> He smiled at me. I lowered my head again. I looked at him again. He smiled at me for a long time and always had this look, which made me realize that he was reading me as an open book.

<sup>(14)</sup> I decided on my own to look at him. He smiled at me. I was asking myself, Who is he? Who is this person in this priestly attire, clothed with a red mantle, the color of blood, with a fuming censer? At the bottom of his mantle, little golden bells, and on his chest a breastplate, upon which big stones of all kinds of colors were embedded. A headband adorned his forehead:

“Holiness to the Eternal.”

<sup>(15)</sup> I recognized him. It was JESUS; it was JESUS! He was still looking at me.

<sup>(16)</sup> He withdrew himself in his priestly robe, when he knew that I understood that he was JESUS. I calmed down. JESUS is in this place.

<sup>(17)</sup> I waited a moment behind this great, large, very high curtain, with figures of angels embroidered with gold thread. This crimson colored curtain made this place where I was dark. There was not that much light. As the curtain did not touch the ground in this place, I was able to see the little gilded bells at the bottom of his red cape.

Dreams and Visions

Chapter 520–1, Vision No. 7

VISION

<sup>(1)</sup> The curtain opened. There were no words between JESUS and I. I was in vision to see what was happening in the most holy place.

little child. I felt at the same time a sadness during this moment in the most holy place. I was not permitted to enter into the most holy place. This moment was solemn.

VISION

<sup>(3)</sup> I saw this tall priest in his priestly garment. He was looking toward the mercy seat (propitiatory altar).

<sup>(4)</sup> I saw in vision blood upon this altar. This priest, JESUS, was looking at his hands with the scars, and he said,

“Father, my blood!

My blood!

My blood!”

<sup>(5)</sup> He was waving his fuming censer. He remained a moment before this altar, then withdrew himself softly, slowly.

<sup>(6)</sup> I saw him putting down his censer on the ground beside him. He removed the breastplate with embedded stones from his chest. — I found it to be heavy— He took it with delicacy and set it on a table that was within his reach.

<sup>(7)</sup> I saw that he had detached the stone breastplate and detached the red mantle, the color of blood, from behind in the back. Then to remove it, he made it slide along his body and let it fall on the ground.

<sup>(8)</sup> He carefully picked it up, folded it, and placed it with the breastplate of stones, taking care to remove the little golden bells, one after the other.

<sup>(9)</sup> JESUS no longer had his priestly garment, nor the breastplate of stones. He was JESUS with his white vesture of the righteousness of God.

<sup>(10)</sup> I approached. I saw that the censer was extinguished:

End of

the mediation of JESUS

in the most holy place.

<sup>(11)</sup> I looked toward the altar, on the left, at the glory of the father. JESUS turned around and said to me,

“My grace is sufficient for thee.”

<sup>(12)</sup> I heard the voice of the father:

“He is my beloved son, in whom I have put

all my affection.”

<sup>(13)</sup> After lightening himself from all that was in the priestly garment, JESUS was relaxed, calm, appeased.

<sup>(14)</sup> JESUS said to me,

“Come close to me,
still closer to me.

My grace is sufficient for thee.”

<sup>(15)</sup> I remained far away. I did not dare come to him. I felt how carnal I was. I feared of losing my life.

<sup>(16)</sup> He said to me, “Come to the holy place near me.”

— I obeyed him.

Dreams and Visions

Chapter 520–1, Vision No. 8

<sup>(1)</sup> JESUS no longer had his red priestly vesture, nor the breastplate of stones, nor the little bells. I saw him in his white vesture and his turban. He was lightened from all this attire and was walking normally.

<sup>(2)</sup> Before the coming of the messenger to bring me back, JESUS came toward me and said to me, “The six cups of the wrath have been mixed with the mercy of God. Otherwise, all the inhabitants of the earth and all living things here below would have died.”

<sup>(3)</sup> “But it is near. When I say to the seventh (7th) angel to pour the seventh (7th) cup upon the earth, there will no longer be any inhabitants, nor any countries; all will be destroyed. This cup will be poured out without the mercy of God.”

upon the clouds
of the heavens.”

<sup>(6)</sup> “Tell your brothers and sisters of the Church of Philadelphia, the “Remnant,” and my Jewish brothers and sisters in the world — JESUS had a thought for them — to keep their crowns.

I COME.

BE READY!”

<sup>(7)</sup> I remained a moment with JESUS in the sanctuary. I was walking beside JESUS.

<sup>(8)</sup> I saw the crimson red curtain, with figures of angels embroidered with thread of gold, that separated the holy place from the most holy place, was completely pulled back. There was no longer any separation.

<sup>(9)</sup> JESUS said: “The mediation for the sinners is no more. I am finished, there is no more grace for the sins of the world.”

<sup>(10)</sup> I looked. JESUS was there with me. I said to him, “This place is big, very big.” It had become one single large, very large room. I saw other things that I could not remember.

<sup>(11)</sup> JESUS said to me, “You are exhausted from the vision. Your messenger will bring you back here to receive my instructions.”

<sup>(12)</sup> I saw, my messenger was near me. He was attentively listening to JESUS, — “to bring me back to the earth,”— and he said to him that he will bring me back soon.

<sup>(13)</sup> In his presence, JESUS said to me,

“I am happy.

I have my bride with me
in this place.”

<sup>(14)</sup> He explained: In the person of his saints, I represented the Church of Philadelphia, the “Remnant,” and his Jewish brothers and sisters in the world. I represented this bride that he will come and take off the earth.

<sup>(15)</sup> I looked at JESUS, great, majestic. His face let me see a deep suffering. JESUS has wept.

<sup>(16)</sup> He said to me, “You are going to come back here.”

<sup>(17)</sup> JESUS asked him to bring me back, for the time of the vision was coming to an end. Then he left us.

<sup>(18)</sup> I looked at him departing again toward the most holy place. He took his fuming censer and placed himself before the propitiatory altar (mercy seat).

<sup>(19)</sup> We were looking at him, my messenger and I, in a thick smoke. Not seeing him any more in this smoke, JESUS briefly withdrew from this smoke and looked at us, for we were, the messenger and I, in the sanctuary.

<sup>(20)</sup> I looked at JESUS, his gaze upon me. His gaze said to me how deeply pained he is to end, to terminate, the mediation through his blood for the guilty. I felt in this look a deep pain.

<sup>(21)</sup> I was deeply saddened. My messenger was looking at him. We were saddened, for he was suffering.

<sup>(22)</sup> My messenger understood the position of JESUS in this thick smoke that started to spread in the most holy place and the holy place.

<sup>(23)</sup> We were together in this smoke because JESUS allowed it.

<sup>(24)</sup> The mediation ended for the world. No one can enter anymore without his grace, by the blood of JESUS.

Dreams and Visions

Chapter 520–1, Vision No. 9

<sup>(1)</sup> JESUS resumed his work as a mediator in the sanctuary for those who have been sealed with the seal of the living God.

<sup>(2)</sup> Their destiny:

“God, New Jerusalem.”

<sup>(3)</sup> He will come out of it when the seventh (7th) plague is poured upon the earth.

<sup>(4)</sup> He said to me,

“I COME!”

<sup>(5)</sup> Without waiting, I felt that my messenger took my hand, and he said hurriedly to me, “Let us depart from here.” — And I lost the vision.

<sup>(6)</sup> As long as JESUS was in the position of priest, no one had the right to enter into this most holy place.

<sup>(7)</sup> I was able to be with JESUS in the sanctuary. His priestly work was terminated at that time.

<sup>(8)</sup> JESUS said to me, that he will come out of it at the seventh (7th) plague.

Dreams and Visions

Chapter 520–1, Vision No. 10

<sup>(1)</sup>THE MEDIATION OF JESUS IS TERMINATED IN THE MOST HOLY PLACE.

IT IS LATE!

VISION

<sup>(2)</sup> A very short time went by. My messenger took me back to JESUS, the son of God, in the heavenly sanctuary.

<sup>(3)</sup> JESUS was waiting for me. When he saw me, he said to me,

“You are welcome!

My grace is sufficient for thee.”

<sup>(4)</sup> I found again this place as I had left it. The large curtain was still pulled back on one side. I was bare-foot, and my garment was white like that of JESUS.

<sup>(5)</sup> There was a bench in this place. He invited me to sit beside him.

<sup>(6)</sup> He arose and went toward a bookcase, where all the books of Ellen White were displayed in this place. From all these books, he withdrew a book. It was the Bible, the word of God.

<sup>(7)</sup> He came back near to me and said to me, as he was opening the Bible to Romans 2, verses 16 and 11, he said to me, “This Bible is yours.”

<sup>(9)</sup> JESUS said to me, “Let us read together.” It is he, who did the reading. I looked at this book, and I recognized it; it was mine.

<sup>(10)</sup> My spirit was opening to the reading. His voice was sweet and melodious. He spoke in a way that I was the student, and he the teacher. He was reading this verse, which was being imbued in my mind.

<sup>(11)</sup> Here are the scriptures that JESUS was reading:

“...God shall judge the secret actions of men by Jesus Christ... for there is no respect of persons with God.” *Romans 2:16,11.

<sup>(12)</sup> In Romans 2, verse 12, JESUS said: “He who has known the law will be judged by the law. He who did not know the law will be judged without the law.”

<sup>(13)</sup> Now, JESUS revealed to me that the door of grace is closed. No one can have access to it anymore, and no one can enter into it any longer. His role as an advocate for the world is TERMINATED.

<sup>(14)</sup> The blood of the cross shed on Calvary no longer covers the sinner. He said:

“He who is holy, let him sanctify himself still.

He who is pure, let him purify himself still.

And the righteous, let him

practice righteousness still.

And he who is filthy, let him defile himself still.”

<sup>(15)</sup> “My blood will no longer cover the guilty. They have been judged. There is no more grace for them. There is no more advocate near my father through the blood of the cross of Calvary.”

<sup>(16)</sup> JESUS said to me, “This generation, presently 45 years old, this generation will not pass.”

<sup>(17)</sup> JESUS revealed to me that the door of grace is closed. No one can any longer enter into it. The world is Sodom and Gomorrah.

Dreams and Visions

Chapter 520–1, Vision No. 11

VISION

<sup>(2)</sup> JESUS said to me, “Your Brother Roy Lemke has received from me a last message to pass in the world on YouTube.”

<sup>(3)</sup> But before that, I saw JESUS going in all the churches of the world with his fan with which he was winnowing. He was calling the inhabitants of the earth to repent before the coming of the absinthe and of the super volcanos.

<sup>(4)</sup> The Church of the “Remnant” of Philadelphia has transmitted this message on YouTube for the world. It was the ultimatum, the last hours before the mediation of JESUS is terminated in the most holy place.

<sup>(5)</sup> This ultimate message has been given. It has been of a very short duration. This message lasted one (1) week.

Dreams and Visions

Chapter 520–1, Vision No. 12

VISION

<sup>(1)</sup> My messenger took me to JESUS on the canopy of heaven. He was waiting for me.

<sup>(2)</sup> I saw that the sun started going down. — JESUS said to me, “We are about to enter into the Sabbath.”

<sup>(3)</sup> JESUS sent a powerful angel to report on this given message. I saw that the day was diminishing in the horizon when finally this angel arrived on the canopy of heaven and said to JESUS, “Roy LEMKE published the message as you have transmitted it to Jeanine. This message has been on the internet. And there has been no one, no one to take this urgent message of repentance. There has been no one in the world, not even among the seventh-day adventist church of Laodicea.”

<sup>(4)</sup> I was listening to this angel, who said to JESUS: “This message has been published from Friday to the next Friday; therefore, one (1) week, a very short time.

<sup>(5)</sup> This message has not been listened to in the world. It is JESUS on the canopy of heaven who sent a powerful angel to give an account of this message which has been published.

<sup>(6)</sup> “One week,” said this messenger, “during a whole week.”

<sup>(7)</sup> He said, “There is no one, no one.”

<sup>(8)</sup> JESUS said to him, “Good and faithful servant, enter into heaven for the Sabbath.”

<sup>(9)</sup> I remained with JESUS on the canopy of heaven. I saw it; he was pained. No one wanted to take into account this message.

<sup>(10)</sup> I said to JESUS, “Can I send this message to my family?” They were seventh-day adventists. — JESUS said to me, “No, do not do it. There is no one from your family, no one.”

<sup>(11)</sup> It is then that JESUS said to me, “I have a little ‘remnant,’ the true worshipers of the SABBATH,” — because SABBATH was about to begin.

<sup>(12)</sup> JESUS said to me,

“I have shortened the time because of them.

I COME!”

(13) He said to me, “It is Sodom and Gomorrah.”

(14) I lost JESUS in this vision.

(15) It was getting dark. I saw the sun going down completely. I lost this vision.

Dreams and Visions

Chapter 520–1, Vision No. 13

VISION

(1) I realized that the son of God could do no more for this perverse world of Sodom and Gomorrah. JESUS has used all his means to save the world through his blood.

(2) He has given by internet this message through the responsible person, Roy Lemke. No one has responded to his love, nor to his appeal. And thus it was.

(3) JESUS, before his father, resolved to stop pleading for the guilty ones.

(4) The mediation of JESUS
in heaven

in the most holy place
IS TERMINATED.

(5) I heard a voice coming out of the altar,

“He is my beloved son, in whom I have put all my affection.”

(6) I saw JESUS remaining seated on this bench, relaxed; and he let me go toward the propitiatory altar (mercy seat). He said to me,

“My grace is sufficient for thee.”

(7) I saw on a table loaves of bread and a rod that had budded. — JESUS said to me, “Do not touch them. They are pure.”

(8) I looked, and I said to myself, “There will no longer be any priest. A work of love is terminated here.” I was sad.

(9) JESUS looked at me and said, “I am no longer a sacrificer (priest) for the sinners of the world. This work is terminated.”

(10) I thought, “He heard the thoughts of my soul and has answered my thoughts.”

(11) JESUS was calm. He has fulfilled his mission; he no longer wore his priestly garment.

(12) Then he said to me, “I continue to plead by my blood for those who have been sealed with the seal of God. They have received the seal of God. They are justified by the blood of the lamb. They are no longer judged.”

“He who is righteous, let him be righteous still.
He who is holy, let him sanctify himself still.
And he who is filthy, let him defile himself still.”

(14) “I COME.

Keep thy crown.”

(15) JESUS arose, took the censer, lit it, and intercedes, as he said it to me, for those who have loved him, and who are soon going to live with him.

(16) I moved away. — JESUS raised his hands upon the altar. He prayed:

(17) “I come

to take my bride away from Sodom and Gomorrah, to take her with me.”

(18) JESUS was praying for the little “remnant.”

(19) I heard the hymns, the prayers of the saints, before the altar. I listened well to the prayers of the saints that were coming out of the censer.

(20) JESUS said to me,

“I COME.

My return is imminent!”
